MUTUAL NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

This Mutual Non-Disclosure Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into as of the Effective Date by and between the parties identified below.

1. Purpose. The parties wish to explore a potential business relationship concerning [describe] (the "Purpose") and may disclose certain confidential information to each other for the Purpose.

2. Confidential Information. "Confidential Information" means any non-public information disclosed by either party, whether orally, in writing, or by any other means, that is designated as confidential or that reasonably should be understood to be confidential given the nature of the information and the circumstances of disclosure.

3. Obligations of Receiving Party. The receiving party shall hold the Confidential Information in strict confidence, shall not disclose it to any third party without the prior written consent of the disclosing party, and shall use it only for the Purpose. The receiving party shall protect the Confidential Information using the same degree of care it uses to protect its own confidential information of like kind, but in no event less than reasonable care.

4. Permitted Disclosures. The receiving party may disclose Confidential Information to its employees, contractors, and professional advisors who have a need to know it for the Purpose and who are bound by confidentiality obligations at least as protective as those in this Agreement.

5. Exclusions. The obligations in Section 3 do not apply to information that: (a) is or becomes publicly available through no fault of the receiving party; (b) was rightfully known to the receiving party before disclosure; (c) is rightfully received from a third party without restriction; or (d) is independently developed without use of the Confidential Information.

6. Compelled Disclosure. If the receiving party is required by law, regulation, or court order to disclose Confidential Information, it shall give the disclosing party prompt written notice to the extent permitted and shall cooperate in seeking a protective order.

7. Term and Termination. This Agreement shall remain in effect for [two (2) years] from the Effective Date, unless terminated earlier by either party upon thirty (30) days' written notice. The obligations of confidentiality with respect to trade secrets shall survive termination for as long as the information remains a trade secret.

8. Return of Materials. Upon termination or upon the disclosing party's request, the receiving party shall promptly return or destroy all Confidential Information and all copies, and certify in writing that it has done so.

9. No Boilerplate Modifications. No modification of this Agreement is effective unless in writing and signed by both parties.

10. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of California, without regard to its conflict of laws principles.

11. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to its subject matter and supersedes all prior discussions and agreements.
